NOTE.

The present volume is the sixth in the Series of the Proceedings of the Governor-General in Council although it forms the ninth in the series of volumes relating to the Supreme Revenue Authority. It is for the period 6 March to 18 December 1781.

There is an explanatory statement by Mr. Ramsbotham in the preceding volume, but the present period is not dealt with therein. In the last volume the revenue administration consisted in Provincial Councils under the Governor-General in Council. Before the beginning of this volume these Councils had been abolished and the work of collection entrusted to Collectors who were to be controlled by a subordinate Committee of Revenue in Calcutta. The office of the Superintendent of Khalsa Records was also abolished and the work transferred to the Committee.

The proceedings of the Committee have not yet been published or preas-listed for this period, but from 1782 onwards selected letters are preas-listed in W. W. Hunter's Bengal MS. Records.

The members of the Governor-General's Council at this time were—

- (1) Warren Hastings.
- (2) Richard Barwell.
- (3) Edward Wheler.
- (4) John MacPherson.
- (5) Sir Eyre Coote.

Philip Francis had gone home the previous year.

D. Anderson was President of the Committee of Revenue with J. Shore as one of the members.
